

OLAMBALA WINS
$7,500 HANDICAPEasy Victory for Wilson Colt
Over Track Like a Sea of Mud.

Race Track, Saratoga, N. Y., August 4.—Before a crowd of 10,000 persons, R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s, Olambala, the 9 to 10 favorite, easily won the $7,500 Saratoga handicap, the feature race of the opening day's card, to-day. The victory of the colt was popular, as Mr. Wilson is well liked by the natives.

The handicap was run over a track which was a sea of mud, as just before post time a terrific thunder and lightning storm broke over the track. Restigouche broke in front, and Shilling let him slip right along, closely attended by Stanley Fay, while Olambala trailed in the rear under a pull. In the run down the backstretch But-well pulled to the middle of the track, and with clear sailing Olambala moved up very fast. At the far turn he was a head in front of Ballot, and in the next furlong he drew away into a four-lengths' lead, winning pulled up. Summaries:

First race—selling, $100 added, three-year-olds, six furlongs—Dan Field (11 to 10), first; Intrinsic (3 to 1) second; Woodcast (5 to 1) third. Time, 1:15.

Second race—selling, $100 added, four-year-olds and up, $100 added, about two and a half miles—Byzantine (7 to 5), first; Jimmy Lane (8 to 1) second; Bound Brook (7 to 2) third. Time, 5:20.

Third race—the Flash stakes, $5,000, two-year-olds, five and a half furlongs—Sempolus (5 to 5), first; Special Brew (6 to 1) second; Althorp (4 to 1) third. Time, 1:09.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Charlotteville, Va., August 4.—The Charlotteville Young Men's Christian Association team defeated the Ashland nine to-day 6 to 5, in a pretty fifteen-inning battle. The locals tied the score in the ninth, and won out in the fifteenth, Shaw scoring the winning run, with only one man out. Lane, who was in the box for the locals, fanned fourteen of the Ashland batters. He was ineffective at the outset, Ashland scoring three runs in the first inning. He steadied as the game progressed, and kept his hits scattered. Blanton twirled for Ashland, and was touched up for fifteen hits, including four doubles.

Visitors Win in Tenth.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Charlotte, N. C., August 4.—Bauswine filled the bases in the seventh inning this afternoon by free dispensation, and the visitors tied up the score, winning out in the tenth round, the final score being 5 to 3. Aside from this and the tenth round Bauswine pitched great ball. Twelve Spartans whiffed the ozone, and the pitcher was steady at all other points. The slow fielding of Williams was responsible, however, for the victory going to the visitors.

ORANGE SHOW MARKED BY HOT COMPETITION

Ribbons Well Scattered and Close Contests Result in Many Classes—Best Hunt Teams in Country Make a Beautiful Field.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Orange, Va., August 4.—After the excitement among the horsemen over the fire of last night, caused by lightning, which burned the planing mills of Grasty Brothers, adjoining the horse show grounds, and endangering the stables of the association, the sky cleared up and made conditions most favorable for the second day of the Orange Horse Show. Almost 4,000 attended the show, and the grandstand was sold out early in the day.

Carriages and wagons from the country lined the ring four and five deep. The great jumping of yesterday was continued to-day. The features of the day were the cup classes. These cups, six of which have been given during the show, were presented to the association by George T. Marshall, in the Orange county green hunter class; William Dupont, in the ladies' park saddle; Miss Amy Dupont, in the open park saddle; James N. Andrews, for the hunt team; Mr. Zinn, in the handicap jump of yesterday; William T. Hunter, in ladies' harness horses, and the cup in the charger class, presented by the Cavalry Association of the United States Army. They were very large and handsome. In most classes the cups were added to the money, and this made them doubly pleasing to the exhibitors.

The hottest class of the day was the middle and heavy weight. David Gray, Willow King, Sunday Morning and the team tied for first place. The judges, unable to decide, finally made a pen jump and sent this magnificent quartet around twice before placing the ribbons in the order named.

This was practically a reversal of yesterday's Corinthian class, showing the uniform quality and performance of the horses. It was the third points in jumping that carried the ribbons.

Five hunt teams, the best in the country, made a beautiful field. Out of the fifteen horses, which followed one another around in close succession, not one knocked down a fence. The Keswick Hunt took first, with the Andrews cup, over Mrs. Allen Potts, whose team made a beautiful performance. Thomas Atkinson, on his good mare Gladia, took the Marshall cup for Orange county hunters. Conditante won cups in both park saddle classes, while Miss Amy Dupont captured a round trophy in the ladies' harness class. Miss Amy Dupont's Lady Babbie, Alexander and Mattie Bord took the ribbons and the grandstand in the harness classes.

William Dupont drove his four-in-hand to a blue and took a number of driving.

Mrs. Allen Potts, on Willow King, with her well matched and trained English pack, gave a touch of the real thing to the show. She won the ladies' jumping class on the same horse. It was nobody's show. Hot competition, great class and clean, bold jumping and unusually well fitted harness classes kept things moving all the time and made this altogether the best of the Orange horse shows.

President Wells, of Virginia League, Makes Known His Attitude.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Lynchburg, Va., August 4.—President Wells will not be a candidate for re-election to the presidency of the Virginia League for the coming year.

Under no conditions can he be induced to accept the office should it be tendered him by the league, as to the correctness of the election of the circuit after the close of the present session.

This announcement is based upon a personal letter written by President Wells from Norfolk to President McLaughlin, of the local association, and his statement came in response to a direct question asked by the league as to the correctness of rumors that have been doing the rounds of the circuit that he would not again head the league.

President McLaughlin immediately announced that the local team will favor the election of C. R. Williams, of Roanoke, to the head of the league, provided he will dispose of his interest in the Roanoke club and sever his connection with that franchise.

In event Mr. Williams would not care to do this, then President McLaughlin is favorable to the election of W. H. Lucas, president of the Northwestern League, and at one time a member of the national board of the National Association.

Mr. Lucas has been at the head of the Northwestern League for a long time, and several years ago it will be recalled, several of the teams on the circuit made an effort to secure his election, and his name has been proposed several times for the position, but it was always withdrawn in favor of Mr. Wells. Now, it seems, he will again be considered for the place.

BALLINGER DENIES IT

Says Crane's Visit Had Nothing to Do With Motion Picture.

St. Paul, Minn., August 4.—Secretary of the Interior Ballinger, while en route to Seattle, wrote the following note to the Associated Press today:

"Please say for me that reports to the effect that Senator Crane's conference with me had to do with the suggestion that I resign is without foundation."

"Our conference did not in the slightest degree relate to myself or any matter affecting me."

"Very respectfully,"

"R. A. BALLINGER."

ST. LOUIS WAS
59 MINUTES LATE

New York Americans Buy Short-stop Priest, of Danville, for $850.

TWO SCOUTS WERE AFTER HIM

Wires Were Kept Hot Last Night in Contest for Player.

He who hesitates is lost, or words to that effect, is one of the choice phrases of the little tin gods, and there is no doubt in this whole wide world that he realized the truth of the saying as deeply as Roger P. Brenahan, the Handsome Rajah, who holds the helm of the St. Louis Nationals. And the stunt was pulled off last night between Arthur Irwin, scout for the New York Americans, and Steve Griffin, of the Danville Club.

Shortstop Priest, of the Bugs, has been a choice morsel for the delectation of the scouts for several weeks, and several clubs have wanted him. He hasn't been in the game long enough, however, to test the world on fire, and merely shows form—form that wins. Therefore the scouts wanted him, but they didn't want him badly enough to put in record breaking bids for him.

Last night, in answer to a query, Steve Griffin wired to Brenahan just as he had written him several days before that Priest could be purchased for $850, and for not a penny less. He received in answer an offer for $500.

Telegrams Exchanged.

Then came Arthur Irwin, scout for New York, and he heard the price Griffin had put on Priest he closed at once for the following telegrams were sent: William Snead, Danville, Va.: Have sold Priest to New York Americans for $500. Answer quick STEVE.

Frank Farrell, New York: Sign license agreement send to Johnson. Bought Priest to-day, 1850.

ARTHUR A. IRWIN. These two telegrams were sent at 8:40 o'clock over the Western Union wires. Nothing had been heard from Brenahan after Griffin's ultimatum, and he was not really considered. He, however, had been doing some thinking, and the economical side to his pocketbook, and he was overwhelmed by the thought of Priest.

After sending the telegrams Irwin and Griffin went to the hotel to talk matters over and to reminisce about the days when the curve ball was an unborn prodigy and the batters' average was a thing to make the modern gasp with hope.

Came Too Late.

Then came a telegram, the time marked on it was 9:40 P. M., which by way of remark, was exactly fifty-nine minutes late. Roger said:

Accept terms of $50 for Priest. ROGER P. BRENAHAN. But St. Louis was fifty-nine minutes late. President Snead, of the Danville club, had wired acceptance of the terms, and Irwin had wired to the proper authorities to inform them of his purchase.

The pretty part of the matter is that Brenahan thinks that he has gotten the prize, and has probably wired the proper authorities that he has done so.

When the New York management claims Priest after the season is over there will be a fight for his possession. The records of the Western Union Telegraph Company will be brought into play and they will be a fight for his possession.

Of the hesitation, was fifty-nine minutes late.

Stuart may be long-suffering and knows too much to be noticing every small attack made upon him. Besides he is willing to meet on high ground such of the respectable element in the Republican party as Mr. Slomp may marshal against him. But certain things have been said about him and his which have stirred him considerably, and it is generally believed out there that he is preparing something warm.

"It is believed that one of the largest crowds which has attended a political meeting in recent years in that section will assemble for the day on August 20 to hear Mr. Stuart formally open his campaign. Every effort is being put forth to make this a notable rally."

Major Stanley W. Martin, of Lynchburg, who will be in command of the detail to practice for the rifle team at Camp Perry, came to Richmond last evening, to go out with the men from this section of the State to-day.

Just 7 More Days to Wait for the 1911 Chalmers

In 7 days we shall be pleased to have you visit our salesroom for an inspection of our 1911 Chalmers "30" demonstrating car. You will be interested in this car, which has created a sensation wherever shown, which is the greatest automobile value ever offered at the price.

We offer the Chalmers cars to the people of Richmond with perfect confidence that they will make good every expectation. We are backed by the opinion of fifty of the leading automobile owners of this city.

We have ordered $49,500 worth of Chalmers cars for 1911. This would have been a tremendous undertaking had we not known that the Chalmers owner is thoroughly satisfied with car.

The demand which our owners have involuntarily created must be taken care of. It is a duty to take care of it.

We have received numbers of letters from them in substantiation of our every claim. Here is the first of the letters we received from prominent automobile owners in this city.

Letter No. 1

Richmond, Va., July 1, 1910.

Gordon Motor Co., City:

Gentlemen,—In answer to your inquiry as to what I think of the 30 Chalmers purchased from you some months ago, beg to state that I have owned three different cars, but never have had such solid comfort and satisfaction as I have enjoyed with my Chalmers.

In the Virginia-North Carolina Endurance Run of 447 miles I carried six people in my car over some of the worst roads in Virginia without a single adjustment or repair, winning a cup in my class, which nothing but a Chalmers could do.

I am so well pleased with it that should it ever become necessary to buy another car it will certainly be a Chalmers.

Yours very truly,

E. C. PELOUSE.

The story of Chalmers cars is one of unparalleled success. When every single owner of a Chalmers car is absolutely satisfied, as is the case in Richmond, that car must be a good one. Chalmers cars ARE good cars, as you will know when you have examined our 1911 Chalmers "30" demonstrator.

News of South Richmond

South Richmond Bureau, The Times-Dispatch, 1103 Hull Street.

An embarrassing instance of mistaken identity occurred in this column yesterday, which has occasioned general regret. There has been for some days at the Associated Charles a girl, Florence Snead, who claims to be from South Richmond, who is believed to be of unsound mind and over whom a commission of lunacy will shortly be held. In noting the item the reporter had reference to the City Directory, and filled in the address as 803 Porter Street.

As a matter of fact, Miss Florence Snead, of 803 Porter Street, is a confidential stenographer for W. S. Donnan & Co., a valued employee and one about whose ability no question has ever been raised. She is a sister-in-law of Postmaster T. H. Smith, and is widely known in South Richmond socially. The Times-Dispatch regrets the error which has caused her needless embarrassment.

Wright Takes Command.

James A. Lipscomb, for thirty-nine years a member of the Police Department of old Manchester, now South Richmond, and who rose to the highest position bestowable, that of police sergeant, has been reduced to desk sergeant. Sergeant Aleck S. Wright, his junior by upwards of thirty years, has been promoted to the captaincy. The latter is unquestionably a most capable and finished officer of the law. Of medium height, strong and active, his demeanor is fearless, and in the discharge of his duty he considers not the danger, and through his experience in the dark and treacherous ways of criminals, has brought many a dangerous character to justice.

Captain Lipscomb Widely Known.

The friends of Captain Lipscomb are many. He is a man of the old regime, inflexibly just and upright, warm-hearted, ever ready with a smile and a fund of humor. No word of disparagement has ever with justice been murmured against him, and through association and long and faithful service he has become an integral part of this community. His genial, sympathetic nature, has been ever manifested in his kindly treatment of prisoners, yet his high regard for duty made him an exemplary officer of the law, and lawbreakers hold him in respect. Although advanced in years, he is almost as erect as in the days of the Civil War, which he so well knows, and is still young in spirit and in good health.

Wright Has Fine Record.

Sergeant Wright is between forty and forty-five years of age, and has been on the police force about sixteen and one-half years. His work has been highly creditable, and he is undoubtedly one of the most capable officers in Richmond, being imbued with a sharp quickness of perception.

Play in Petersburg.

W. L. Prentiss, president of the Southside Gun Club, and now holder of the medal, left for Petersburg last night to play in a game in which some of the best players in the State will participate. They opposed a team of picked players from the Cockade City.

Small Fire, Little Damage.

A small blaze did some damage yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock in the grocery store of John S. Wakenfield, between Tenth and Eleventh, on Hull Street. Excitement occasioned by the smoke and thinking that a large fire was imminent caused Mrs. Peter Van der Laan to faint. She was revived in a few minutes, however, and is not expected to suffer any serious effects. The blaze originated from the burning of some rags and rubbish. The fire department turned out, and with the use of a stream of water soon extinguished the blaze. The damage was trifling.

Exciting Runaway.

Mrs. M. E. Jackson and two daughters, Misses Carrie and Emma, and Mrs. Clark and son were the unwilling participants in an exciting runaway Wednesday afternoon near Pisgah Church, Chesterfield, when their horse, terrified by a blinding flash of lightning, bolted, the vehicle containing the scared women being hurled with such force against a tree that all were thrown, and painfully bruised. None was badly hurt.

Funeral of Miss Wilmoth.

The body of Miss Mary Wilmoth, who died in the home of her sister, Mrs. Bertie Newcomb, Maury Street and Petersburg Turnpike, Wednesday afternoon, was shipped yesterday morning to Chase City and burial will be in the family burying ground near there. Her death
